Items We Do Not Accept

Condition and size matter. Our clients have been through tough times – homelessness, domestic violence, foster care, addiction, physical and mental disabilities, poverty and more. We want to help them create a home environment that makes them feel proud and hopeful. Please consider this rule of thumb: If a furniture piece isn't good enough for you to give a friend or a relative, it's probably not good enough for our clients. Additionally, most of our clients live in small apartments, with no elevator and narrow hallways and stairs. We cannot take items that we know we cannot give right back out to clients due to their size or shape.
